

The Capitol Online, Annapolis, Md

People in business news

April 30, 2006

The Capital

People in business news

Tammy Winters of Hanover has been named vice president for business banking group of Citizens National Group. She will be responsible for business customers in west Anne Arundel County and Bowie.

Several Anne Arundel County agents for Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage were among the top 2005 producers honored by the company.

Barbara Tower, Alex Sears, Michele Cordle and Moe Farley of the Annapolis Church Circle were named among the top five sales teams, while Georgie Berkinshaw and Connie Cadwell of the Church Circle officer were among the top five individual sales members.

Susan Mattingly of the Severna Park office was among the top sales in total units.

Eileen Coale, owner of Annapolis-based Coale Communications, has won an award at the Clayton Makepeace Power Marketing Summit in Washington. Her direct mail package promoting a CoQ10 nutritional supplement was awarded an honorable mention.

Chuck McBee of Sturn Wagner Lombardo & Co. been certified by the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts as Certified Valuation Analyst.

Rob Shepherd, has been promoted to Annapolis branch manager for First Republic Mortgage Corp. The Severna Park resident previously was Severna Park branch manager for Wells Fargo Home Mortgage.

Creative Direct Response in Crofton has hired Joanna De La Cruz as staff accountant, Toby Gohn as account executive, Marni Grimm as production manager and Mikaela King as account executive.

Send information on your career, business or event to Business Newsmakers, The Capital, P.O. Box 911, Annapolis, MD 21404, e-mail to capstaff@capitalgazette.com or fax to 410-280-5953.

- No Jumps-

*Published April 30, 2006, The Capital, Annapolis, Md.
Copyright © 2006 The Capital, Annapolis, Md.*