

The Myrtle Beech Sun News

Business Pulse

September 10, 2006

Posted on Sun, Sep. 10, 2006

BUSINESS PULSE

ARRIVALS

Stephanie Webster has joined Prudential Burroughs and Chapin Realty as its marketing manager. "J" Gobin, Bob Hurt, George Kahl and Kaci Vaught have joined its general brokerage; Billy Rainwater and Tiffany Travis, its New Homes department.

J. Griffin Morrow and Carlyle Cromer have joined Crescent Bank's loan department as credit analysts.

Randy Wyatt has joined Mark Poff Yacht Sales as a sales executive.

Susan Boyette and Robin Rossi have joined Waccamaw Insurance Services at 3955 U.S. 17 Bypass in Murrells Inlet.

Beth McClure, Elizabeth Morton and Ashley Barnhill have joined Coldwell Banker Chicora Real Estate office sales forces: McClure, North Myrtle Beach; Morton: Dunes; and Barnhill, Garden City Beach.

The North Myrtle Beach Chamber of Commerce Relocation and Community Resource Guide, published by Great Southern Publishers Inc., has been chosen as an "Award of Excellence" winner by the Printing Industry Association of the South.

NEW BUSINESSES

Highland Global is opening a new Myrtle Beach office at The Founders Centre, 2411 N. Oak St., Suite 305.

BOARDS

Chuck Mills, M.D. has been appointed by Gov. Mark Sanford to the board of commissioners that governs Loris Community Hospital District.

Lynn G. Stevens has been named a director of CNB Corp. and The Conway National Bank Boards of Directors. Stevens is a shareholder/attorney with the McNair Law Firm, PA, in Myrtle Beach, the current president of the Real Estate Section of the S.C. Bar Association and a panel member of the Commission of Judicial Conduct.

MISCELLANEOUS

Robert M. Clinger III of Highland Global has had the second part of his article, "Direct Market Data Method: Value Disparity Issues," published in the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts' journal, The Value Examiner (July/August 2006 issue). Clinger is also the author of the book "The Seven Deadly Sins of Business Valuation: Closely Held and Family Controlled Companies."

Lisa Stocker, manager of Chicora Long Term Rentals, has been accepted as a member of the National Association of Residential Property Managers.

Larry Willis, Realtor, of Coldwell Banker Chicora Real Estate, has earned the Coldwell Banker Previews International Property Specialist designation.

Kim Floyd of Coldwell Banker Chicora's Carolina Forest office has earned the professional designation Certified Negotiation Specialist.

HTC Digital Cable has announced the launch of Turner South providing sport shows and events on Channel 66.

To get your item into BUSINESS PULSE, e-mail it to business pulse@thesunnews.com before 11 a.m. of the Wednesday preceding the Sunday publishing day.