Jeff Aucoin, a manager in P&N Consulting, has received the Certified Valuation Analyst Designation, sponsored by the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts. The CVA certifies that its members have been trained in performing business valuations and litigation support and have passed an examination on business examinations.

P&N Consulting is a subsidiary of the Postlethwaite & Netterville accounting firm.

Dr. David Edward Post, medical director of the Capital Area Human Services District, has been named 2006 Exemplary Psychiatrist by the National Association on Mental Illness.

During hurricanes Katrina and Rita, Post led the medical behavioral health development services in the CAHSD's seven-parish region.

This year's honorees are psychiatrists who demonstrate exemplary commitment and expertise in disaster psychiatry and post-traumatic stress disorder.

Baton Rouge public relations professionals Kimberly Young Chopin and Holly Houk Cullen have been named to the Southern Public Relations Federation's 2006 class of 26 professionals designated "senior practitioners."

The designation recognizes veteran PR professionals with high ethical standards and a record of achievement and service.

Chopin is public information manager for the Louisiana Lottery Corp. Cullen is associate director of university relations/director of integrated marketing at LSU.
