FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NACVA DELIVERS NATURAL DISASTERS AND OTHER BUSINESS INTERRUPTIONS TRAINING TO FLORIDA PRACTITIONERS

Understanding Insurance Policies, Forensic Accounting Principles, and the Methodology to Calculate Business Interruption Claims.

Ft. Lauderdale – July 11, 2006 - The Consultants' Training Institute (CTI), in conjunction with the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA) and NACVA State Chapter Foundation, is delivering a three-day Natural Disasters and Other Business Interruptions Workshop to Florida practitioners. The workshop will be held July 17-19 at the Bahia Mar Beach Resort & Hotel, Ft. Lauderdale.

The focus in this Workshop is on smaller firms with standard insurance policies rather than larger companies with manuscript insurance policies. Practitioners will become familiar with the basic terms of a policy, learn how to identify key issues, and determine if they have the necessary resources to prepare a business interruption claim. The workshop will also address how to handle engagements that require additional resources to complete. Day one will focus on a detailed analysis of the standard business interruption policy. The discussion will center on key points of the policy, as well as understanding the definitions and application of its provisions. The second and third days of the workshop will be dedicated to the fundamentals of calculating business interruption claims and case studies.

The workshop was created for CPAs, particularly in the Gulf Coast, who have experienced business interruption from natural disasters; CPAs who have business clients who have been or are likely to be affected by hurricanes, tornadoes, fires, floods, earthquakes, or windstorms; attorneys; claims representatives from major insurance companies; or anyone involved in the preparation and calculation of lost profits for claims. For more information please call (800) 677-2009.
