

CTI CHICAGO: Huge NACVA Consulting Conference Arrives In Town Sept 21st-26th

The National Association for Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA) Arrives in Chicago September 21–26th; Its Consultants’ Training Institute Presents Nation’s Leading Experts in Business Valuation, Litigation Consulting, and Financial Forensics

SALT LAKE CITY– September 15, 2007 – The National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA), the organization that establishes, builds, protects, and defends business value, announced that its Consultants’ Training Institute will arrive in Chicago for five days, September 21-26th.

Hundreds of attendees will gather at the Palmer House Hilton Hotel to receive training and certification, brush up on the latest developments in finance, and mix with leading visionaries in the industry.

“NACVA’s six-day Consultants’ Training Institute is world renowned for providing the most comprehensive foundational training programs on how to value private business enterprises and how to use financial forensics in preparation for litigation,” said Parnell Black, NACVA CEO. “For more than a decade the Consultants’ Training Institute has grown in popularity, spreading to more cities, attracting more people, and adding new training tracks on a variety of specialties.

In Chicago, the six-day tracks include:

- Business Valuation and Certification Training Center, a comprehensive program that ranges from fundamentals and techniques in business valuation to case studies, analysis, theory, and applications.
- Business Fraud - Deterrence, Detection, and Investigation Workshop, which takes attendees through planning and negotiating an engagement, schemes (and where to look), and interviewing techniques.
- Healthcare Physicians Workshop, which begins by introducing the dynamics of physicians and group practices, discusses physician compensation plans and arrangements, and healthcare benchmarking for increased efficiency.
- Mergers & Acquisitions Workshop, which thoroughly explores both the sales side and the buy side in M&A, cover special M&A topics and techniques, and then focuses on mastering the skills of sales and marketing in M&A.
- Matrimonial Litigation Support Workshop, starts with an overview of Matrimonial Litigation, explores forensic accounting techniques, issues of valuation and appraisal unique to Matrimonial Litigation, divorce taxation and distribution issues, as well as practice management and development.
- Litigation Consulting - Fast Track, takes attendees through litigation theory and case law, litigation strategies and communication skills in the courtroom and the board room, report and deposition skills, and direct and cross examination skills development.

. . . as well as additional courses on Financial Forensics and Specialized Applications, Business Valuation Skills Development, Essentials of Business Appraisal, and Litigation Consulting and Valuation Skills development, all of which you can read about in the conference brochure on the NACVA site.

These courses, with special focus on Business Valuation, Financial Litigation Support, and Fraud Deterrence, cover some of the hottest niches for the CPA profession every year, according to Accounting Today, offering financial professionals great opportunities for the future.

Over 15,000 professionals have attended various NACVA/CTI training in recent years. To learn more about the more than 80-plus courses that are offered through the CTI and to reserve your space in Ft. Lauderdale, visit the NACVA site or call toll-free: (800) 677-2009.

About the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts

The National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA), founded in 1991, is a global professional association that supports business valuation, forensic accounting, fraud prevention and detection, and a variety of other disciplines within the CPA and professional business advisory communities. Along with its training and certification programs, NACVA offers research support, marketing tools, software, journals, reference materials, and proprietary databases to enhance the professional capabilities and capacities of its members.

Headquartered in Salt Lake City, UT, the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts has trained over 15,000 practitioners in its business valuation certification program and over 25,000 professionals in its spectrum of consulting discipline courses. For more information and to learn more about the association, go to www.nacva.com.