Michael J. Molder, JD, CPA, CVA, MAFF, CFE, is the owner of AILA Limited, providing financial forensic and business valuation services primarily in litigation engagements. Mr. Molder applies over 35 years as a financial professional and commercial litigator to analyze financial misconduct claims, value business interests, and investigate fraud.

As lead counsel in Neuberger and Scott v. Shapiro, et al., E.D.Pa. 97-CV-7947, Mr. Molder won the respect of the court and opposing counsel for his deep understanding of the accounting and reporting issues at play in that federal securities fraud case. Over the course of his legal career, Mr. Molder helped co-counsel understand complex financial and accounting issues in dozens of cases.

Since 2006, Mr. Molder has applied his analytical and investigative skills in valuation and forensic/litigation services engagements. Additionally, he has worked on a wide variety of matters ranging from shareholder disputes and partnership breakups to matrimonial and personal injury cases to damages calculations in commercial litigation and fraud investigations. Mr. Molder has testified on business valuation, commercial damages, and fraud.

Mr. Molder earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the Pennsylvania State University and his Juris Doctor from the Temple University School of Law. He holds Certified Valuation Analyst® and Master Analyst in Financial Forensics® credentials from the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts® and the Certified Fraud Examiner® credential from the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners®.
